Students at Iranian universities, including "Amirkabir", "Sharif University of Technology", and "Beheshti" in Tehran, and Mashhad University of Medical Sciences held protest gatherings for the second consecutive day on Sunday, February 22, 2026. According to reports, students in these gatherings chanted anti-government slogans, including against Ali Khamenei, and commemorated the victims of the bloody crackdown on the January protests. Videos published by student media indicate the formation of protest gatherings by Beheshti students on Sunday, February 22, 2026. At Beheshti University in Tehran, they chanted slogans such as "We swear by the blood of our comrades, we will stand until the end, Death to the dictator, 'Hussein Hussein' is their slogan, crime is their honor, and this year is the year of blood, Seyed Ali is overthrown."
