

Republican Students of Iran's Top Universities: The University is Alive, Hope for a Democratic Republic is Alive

مرداد 1405 10

In a statement commemorating the fortieth day of the bloody crackdown in January 2026, a group of republican students and alumni from Shahid Beheshti, Allameh Tabatabai, Tehran, and several other Iranian universities honored the victims of the protests and held the regime directly responsible for the organized violence, which responded to civil protests with bullets, killings, and mass arrests.
